Notes from Mia Klein:

This wine is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon and has blackcurrant and raspberry fruit; there is also a dark molasses-like licorice along with leather and fresh tobacco notes; it has a very distinct floral character, violets, jasmine, and blackberry flowers; milk chocolate covered almonds as well. The preciseness and intensity of the aromas come through nicely in the mouth with a fine, weighty grain to the tannins and a long finish featuring the high-toned floral notes. It will be hard to keep from drinking in the present but watching the continued development over the next decade-plus should be quite enjoyable.
